

Act on Energy Training Course dates 2010

Affordable warmth – 9th September 2010

Session covering the issues associated with fuel poverty and how it can be tackled in our community.

Central heating & Insulation – 30th September 2010

Session on how central heating systems work, the different types of system and what the controls do, plus Insulation techniques, their costs, application and benefits.

Changes to Part L building Regs & Code for Sustainable Homes – October 21st 2010

Updates on changes to PART L building regulations, and the code for sustainable homes, how the code operates and links to changes in building regulations.

Energy Efficiency in Historic Buildings November 4th 2010

How to be to tackle energy efficiency in historic buildings, best practice & case studies, examples looked at, plus a look at the planning implications for listed properties & conservation areas.

Practical Training Session – How to..... 18th November 2010

A hands on guide to setting a central heating programmer, working out fuel bills, how to read a meter, how to operate storage heaters efficiently, installing owl monitors, plus practical low cost tips to help you advise your residents on energy efficiency.

Energy performance certificates & Thermal Imaging - 2nd December 2010

Understanding the EPC and how you can easily improve the SAP rating of a property, plus thermal images of buildings and how to interpret them.

*****

Courses are run at our offices in Wellesbourne and are costed at £50 per head or at a group rate of £300 when booking for eight candidates or more (max of 12 per session). If you have a service level agreement with us you can offset each course you attend against the training section of the SLA. All courses are half days running from 9.45am through to 12.30pm.

All of the above courses can be run in house at dates to suit you, to book or for further information please call Act on Energy on 01789 842898 or email advice@actonenergy.org.uk